- Educational Development Plan through your high school. Genesee County students begin this plan in middle school with Career Cruising and update it throughout the remaining years leading up to graduation. Applicants may use their EDP to verify entrepreneurial interests by providing a printed copy of your most recent EDP.
- Senior Exit Interview. As part of graduation requirements, Genesee County students prepare for an "exit interview" during the senior year. This includes a written and verbal presentation to a committee selected by the school. Applicants may use their senior exit interview presentations to verify entrepreneurial interests by providing a copy of the written document, Powerpoint presentation, or video recording on DVD of the actual presentation.
- Essay. Applicants may submit a written essay to verify their entrepreneurial aspirations. The essay is limited to three (3) typed pages, preferably in Microsoft Word on a CD. The essay should cover your definition of an entrepreneur; what type of business you are considering; why you think or feel you will be successful; and how you plan to use this scholarship award.
- Personal Interview. All applications will be screened by the Scholarship Coordinator to verify qualification for consideration by the Selection Committee. Applicants that pass the qualification test will be notified that they may request a personal interview as their opportunity to present their entrepreneurial aspirations. This option may also be used by the Scholarship Selection Committee to make final decisions on scholarship awards.

Which options will you choose to share your entrepreneurial interests? Circle a minimum of two options from the list below. You may choose more than two options.
