

KATHERINE ROAT STEVENS EDUCATION & TRAINING FUND (designated fund)

Fund Name: Katherine Roat Stevens Education & Training Fund

Gift Language: The purpose of this fund is to support education and training opportunities for low income women who live in Genesee County with entrepreneurial aspirations.

Criteria: Scholarships will be awarded annually to successful applicants who meet all of the following criteria:

- Women who are residents of Genesee County
- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Has an interest in becoming an entrepreneur (must be documented through business plan, essay and/or interview)
- Financial need must be established using Federal annual guidelines of low income eligibility status (see attachment).

Award Amount and Use: Scholarships in the amount of $1,000.00 will be awarded to be used for college, vocational, or recognized business-related training tuition, fees, and books. Funds will be paid directly to the training institution of the successful applicant's choice.

Email: krset@thegrcc.org